and is committed to complying with the Equalities Act 2010 with such other Acts and statutory requirements furthering equality of opportunity for all as also apply to its charitable activities.

RECOGNISES that it has moral and social responsibilities that go beyond the provisions of the above-mentioned Acts and Regulations, and that it should support and contribute to the wider process of change through all aspects of its work and practices in order to eliminate discrimination and promote equality and diversity.

IS COMMITTED to taking positive steps to ensure that:

- all people are treated with dignity and respect, valuing the diversity of all;
- equality of opportunity and diversity is promoted;
- services are accessible, appropriate and delivered fairly to all;
- the mix of its employees, volunteers and management committees reflects, as far as possible, the broad mix of the population of its local community;
- traditionally disadvantaged sections of the community are encouraged to participate in policy decisions about, and the management of the services provided.

POLICY

This policy applies to all members, staff, volunteers, management committee members, users and the general public (service users).

Commitment

Equality and diversity are central to the work of PCAP.

PCAP will treat all people with dignity and respect, valuing the diversity of all. It will promote equality of opportunity and diversity. It will eliminate all forms of discrimination on grounds of race, gender, marital status, caring responsibilities, disability, gender re-assignment, age, social class, sexual orientation, religion/ belief, irrelevant offending background or any other factor irrelevant to the purpose in view.

It will tackle social exclusion, inequality, discrimination and disadvantage.

For this policy to be successful, it is essential that everyone is committed to and involved in its delivery. PCAP's goal is to work towards a just society free from discrimination, harassment and prejudice. PCAP aims to embed this in all its policies, procedures, day-to-day practices and external relationships.

Aims

PCAP aims to:

- Provide services that are accessible according to need;
- Promote equality of opportunity and diversity in volunteering, employment and development;
- Create effective partnerships with all parts of our community.

Objectives

PCAP's objective is to realise its standards by:

- Sustaining, regularly evaluating and continually improving its services to ensure equality and diversity principles and best practice are embedded in our performance to meet the needs of individuals and groups;
- Working together with the community to provide accessible and relevant service provision that responds to service users' needs;
- Ensuring staff, volunteers and members are representative of the community served;
- Responding to volunteer's & employees' needs and encouraging their development to increase their contribution to effective service delivery;
- Recognising and valuing the differences and individual contribution that all people make to PCAP;
- Challenging discrimination;

- Providing fair resource allocation;
- Being accountable.

Why have this policy?

PCAP recognises, respects and values diversity in its members, employees, volunteers and service users.

PCAP has this policy because it is a people-led organisation that must always ensure it meets the needs of the community through fair and appropriate employment and development of the people who work and volunteer for PCAP.

PROCEDURES

Responsibility for Implementation

This policy covers the behaviour of all people employed or volunteering in PCAP or using the services and sets out the way they can expect to be treated in turn by PCAP. The overall responsibility for ensuring adherence to and implementation of this policy lies with the members, staff and the management committee.

Method of Implementation

PCAP intends to implement this policy by:

Ensuring that it is a condition of paid employment in PCAP;

- Ensuring that members, management committee, volunteers and users are made aware, understand, agree with, and are willing to implement this policy. All staff and volunteers will be given a copy of this policy as part of their induction;
- Actively encouraging members, staff, management committee and volunteers to participate in anti-discriminatory training, and making time and resources available for such training;
- Monitoring the services, publicity and events provided by PCAP, to ensure that they are accessible to all sections of the population and do not discriminate, and taking active steps to ensure that participation is representative.

Monitoring and Reviewing

PCAP has declared its commitment to establishing, developing, implementing and reviewing a policy of equality of opportunity. Effective record keeping and monitoring, and acting on information gathered, are essential in order to measure effectiveness and plan progress. The Chair will review the policy annually.
